

JARGON

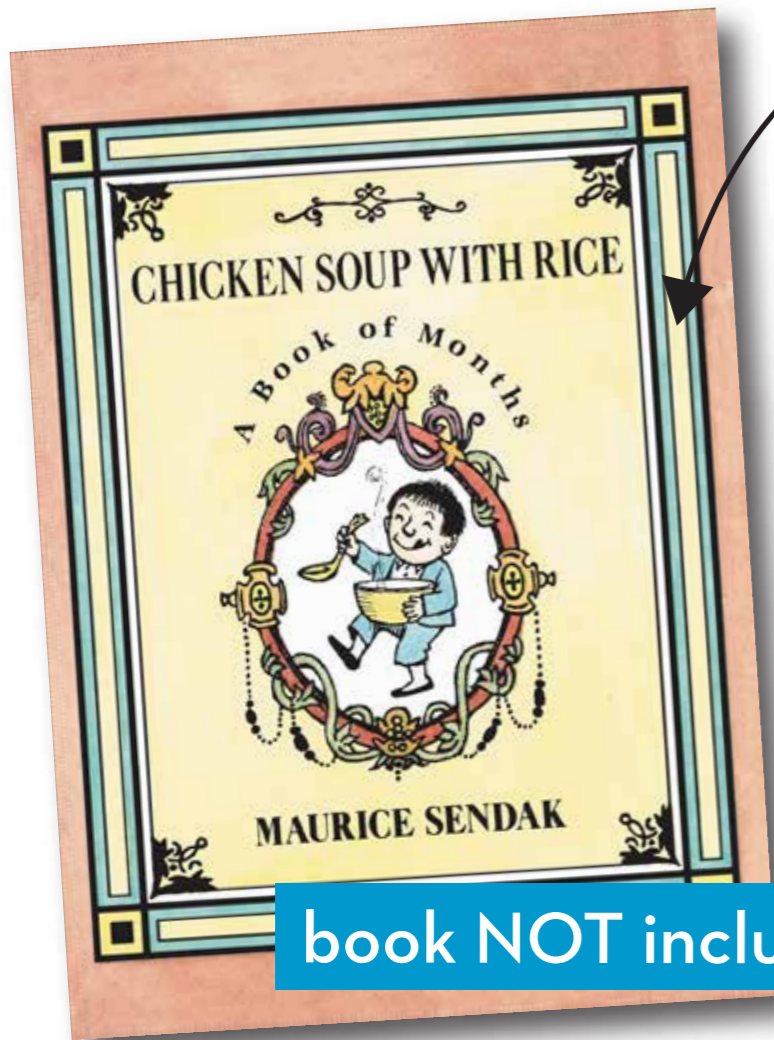

Journal

VOCABULARY CURRICULUM for

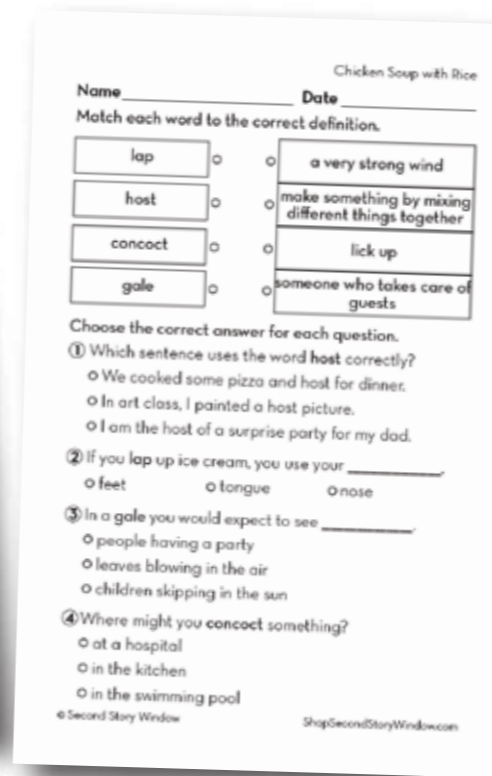

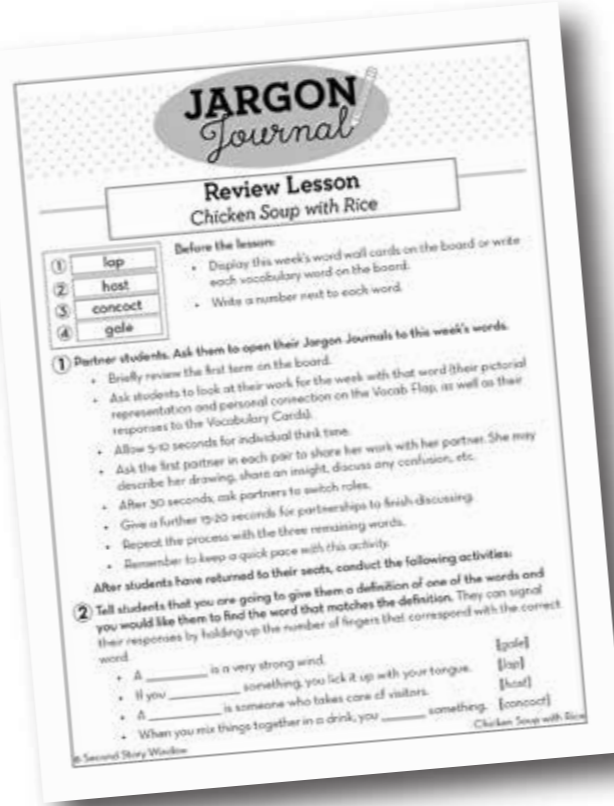

Chicken Soup with Rice

by Maurice Sendak

use this book (NOT included) to teach vocabulary with these materials

book NOT included

review lesson & assessment

A _____ is someone who takes care of visitors.

1 lap 2 host
 3 concoct 4 gale

interactive review powerpoint

lap verb When you lap up something, you lick it up. The cats lap up the milk in the bowl. Which of these could you lap? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> cookies water soda pop bricks milk juice avocados JOURNAL PROMPT Would you rather lap up your food or use a spoon?	host noun When you invite friends to your house, you are the host. I will host my friend's birthday party. When might you host people at your house? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> for dinner to wash your clothes to watch a movie when you are sick for a school project on a holiday JOURNAL PROMPT When have you been a host for someone?
concoct verb If you concoct something, you mix different things together. I used the leftovers in the fridge to concoct a stew. Which of these did someone concoct? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a bird chocolate chip cookie fruit salad milk pizza hot chocolate JOURNAL PROMPT How would you concoct a recipe for peanut butter chocolate milk?	gale noun A gale is a very strong wind. The gale blew my umbrella inside out! Which of these would you expect in a gale? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> papers blowing sunshine JOURNAL PROMPT What might happen to a kite in a gale?

photo support

vocabulary journal cards

and more!

SECOND STORY WINDOW

